

KEY TRAVEL

Business Travel Professionals: Reservations/Rail Specialists (Brussels Office)

We are looking for specialists with expert Dutch language skills to join our busy reservations team in our Brussels office situated in the central Avenue Louise district.

We specialise in the not-for-profit sector and are a company full of exciting opportunities. Our specialism's focus on all modes of worldwide travel in a seamless service for all our customers.

The current vacancies are for both a full reservations agent and a reservations and rail agent in a varied and combined role. All our reservations agents receive in-depth training before joining our friendly team, reporting directly to the Team Manager for our Belgian operation.

We have lots of ambition to build on an already successful business with more new products on the market and an environmentally friendly attitude.

We pride ourselves on being able to deliver the most expert and specialist service on the market for our customers as well as being the most co-operative team in the travel industry.

If you have:

- Proven experience in retail or business travel
- Good working knowledge of both Amadeus (GDS) and Atlantis (Rail) systems
- Fluent spoken and written English, Dutch and French
- Excellent worldwide geographical knowledge
- A readiness to be a part of a vibrant and expanding company where the customer service is the key focus

...then why not come and join our team?

Our people receive a highly competitive salary and additional benefits package, dedicated career development, the challenge to grow with the company and great job satisfaction as they help those around the world to make a difference.

If you would like to apply to join one of the most successful teams in the travel industry then please send your CV and covering letter by Friday 9th April 2010 to hr@keytravel.com
